

Details of Summercamp 2017 – Rotary District 1860

Location	Germany – Mannheim (Rhine/Neckar metropolitan region)
Theme	Exploration of culture and economics of Germany
Period	Saturday, August 19 th to Saturday, September 2 nd 2017
Participants	Max. 20 girls and boys are welcome, minimum group size is 14 Recommended age between 18 and 25 years From all countries worldwide, not exceeding more than 2 participants from one country.
Language	The language in the camp is English. All participants need to be able to follow the programme on English
Motto	Germany does have a world leading economy and a history exceeding 2000+ years. Participants will explore both culture and economy. The programme will have an extended visiting programme to see typical small to mid-size companies that form the backbone of the German economy. Places where Germanys history and culture comes to live will be visited as well. Local rotary clubs will host the participants for typical one day and show them the most favorable things in their respective area.
Required insurance	Participants must have sufficient health insurance, luggage insurance is recommended. Liability insurance is provided by the camp
Information	Further detailed information about the camp will be provided through email and the facebook group “Rotary District 1860 Summer Camp 2017”
Visa	Visas are obligatory for some of non-EU countries. It is in the sole responsibility of participants to obtain a visa on their own cost.
Costs	Travel cost and pocket money has to be paid by the participants. A participant fee of 100 EURO need to be paid upon arrival. All other costs are covered by the district 1860 and the hosting Rotary Clubs of the Rhein-Neckar-Region

Thorsten Dusberger

Rotary@Dusberger.de

Heinrich-Heine-Str. 5 - 68723 Oftersheim – Tel: +49 178 9017290